

Sheringham Nursery is a National Teaching School

Will lead East London Early Years and Schools Partnership

After years of hard work and development, Sheringham Nursery School and Children's Centre in Newham has been designated as a National Teaching School.

The awarding body, the National College for Teaching and Leadership, selected Sheringham to join a select few other "centres of excellence across the country" said Charlie Taylor, Chief Executive of NCTL. He also said: "Sheringham Nursery School and Children's Centre should be very proud of this achievement. The school has been recognised as a centre of excellence in its area, with an outstanding performance and a track record of raising standards through supporting other schools."

Sheringham is now offering School Direct places through their partnership with Kaizen Primary School and is actively seeking candidates for the 2014/15 programme, in partnership with UEL. Anybody interested should get in touch with Kaizen Primary School to find out how to apply: kai.muxlow@kaizen.newham.sch.uk

Sheringham was already a DfE-designated Community Childcare and Early Learning Hub. Working alongside the charity 4Children, Sheringham improved the quality of local early years providers and 'Every child a talker' and Childminder Network programmes prompted a visit from Sir Michael Wilshaw, Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools.

National Teaching Schools are elected to work with partner schools in an alliance to provide high quality, school-led initial teacher training and professional development for teachers at all stages of their career.

Sheringham will be leading the East London Early Years and Schools Partnership. The school has a track record of working closely with other schools in the Manor Park Soft Federation and this was central to their bid to become a Teaching School.

In 2014, Sheringham Nursery was awarded two outstanding grades from Ofsted and was already involved with Initial Teacher Training as an Early Years hub for TeachFirst.

Stephen Timms, MP for East Ham and Shadow Minister (Work and Pensions), said: "I know from my recent visit to meet Sheringham's Teach-First trainee teacher that the school is highly committed to developing the next generation of teachers and school leaders. I am delighted to see a Newham Nursery School and Children's Centre gaining national recognition for its excellent practice."

The school has strong links with the Institute of Education and has hosted many student and practitioner visits with the IOE during recent

Professor Iram Siraj, a leading academic specialising in early childhood education, welcomed Sheringham's designation: "On behalf of the IOE, I am delighted to welcome the collaboration with East London Early Years and School Partnership. We look forward to working together on research and the further development of effective pedagogy, with a shared commitment to inclusion and racial equality."

Sheringham Headteacher, Dr Julian Grenier, has been a tutor on the IOE Early Years MA. He completed his doctorate in education there, researching professional development for staff working with 2-year-olds, which has particular resonance given the expansion of free places for 2-year-olds in Newham.

Dr Grenier has been designated as a National Leader of Education and deputy headteacher, Lesley Webb, has been designated as a Specialist Leader of Education.

Grenier said: "we are absolutely delighted with the achievement, which is the result of a great deal of hard work by the staff team and governors. The early years of a child's life and learning are incredibly important: you learn more in those first five years than at any other time in your life. Becoming a National Teaching School means we can do more to help Newham's youngest children get the best start to life."

NPW User Group Meeting

To be held at Francis House on Monday 9 March, 4pm-5pm

The next NPW User Group meeting will take place at Francis House on Monday 9th March from 4pm-5pm (4th floor, room 4.3).

Can a member of your SLT attend the next meeting of the NPW User Group, where the focus of discussion will be the potential for the transfer of a Bursar / Financial Consultancy support service from the LA to NPW?

Interest generated at previous User Group meetings prompted NPW to begin investigating this option. At this stage of discussions, input from schools is vital.

There will be space for any Headteacher, Governor, School Business Manager or members of the School Leadership Team nominated by the Headteacher and we would appreciate your attendance.

The purpose of these meetings is to continue to gather valuable feedback from schools, share information, use the group as a sounding board for new service ideas and identify where NPW can make improvements to existing services.

As we want to maximise the number of voices heard, please consult with colleagues before you attend so you can feed in their views.

RSVP if you are intending to attend: Paul.stratton@npw.so

East London NHS - DBS checking and safeguarding training

NHS staff such as school nurses, therapists, health visitors, support workers and doctors are checked when they are first employed and may not work unsupervised until check results have been confirmed. Checks are repeated three yearly.

Staff mandatorily attend child safeguarding training at a level appropriate to their role and responsibilities.

Schools should be reassured that appropriate staff have been checked and therefore should not need to produce DBS clearance prior to undertaking work in a school.

You will rise by lifting others

SBM Network Meeting

Speakers will be from NPW & LBN covering finance, procurement, HR and SLAs.

Please note that the meeting is open to all primary, free and special schools, nurseries & academies in Newham regardless of whether or not you have an SBM, however, it would be more beneficial if the person attending is currently performing duties to which the above topics are relevant.

Primary / Secondary Adviser

Learning & Achievement Team – London Borough of Newham

At Newham Council our vision and strategy is to improve the quality of education in all schools and other educational settings. We are looking to appoint primary/secondary advisers to help us take the right steps to ensure that all of our children and young people are able to achieve and reach their full potential.

The advisers will be expected to develop strong relationships with a range of partners especially schools. They will provide expert advice, support and challenge on strategies for improving the quality of education and levels of educational attainment.

The successful candidate will:

Have considerable experience of education and school improvement

Have senior leadership experience

Have real credibility across the education agenda and know how to improve a school

Be confident in holding schools to account

Background

At the Director's Conference in December, colleague headteachers registered their interest in principle in the idea that, where there is capacity within the senior leadership team, a headteacher or other senior leader could be released to support school improvement with other schools. It was agreed that there is currently capacity for 'school to school support' of this type. The Learning and Achievement Team in Children and Young People's Service (CYPS) currently has vacancies and we are seeking to offer an opportunity to successful headteachers or senior leaders to join the team on a flexible basis, both enhancing their professional development and building capacity within their own school leadership.

This is an interesting opportunity for leaders, with both school improvement experience and a good understanding of the local Newham context, to contribute to improving the education provision for, and therefore life chances of, children and young people in Newham. The role will have an important function of strengthening the partnership between schools and the local authority by ensuring that schools receive the right support and challenge. It will also offer an opportunity for primary or secondary colleagues to broaden their understanding of the work of the Council as a strategic partner with schools.

We would envisage colleagues working with us for a given number of term-time days across a flexible period of time through to August 2015 and potentially beyond. We should like the arrangement to commence as soon as possible and ideally from Easter 2015 but we would obviously be flexible to ensure that pre-existing commitments can be met. The Council would support schools financially by offering £500 per day for the work.

Application Process

To request a job description and person specification please email recruitment@npw.so quoting the reference TT6151.

If you would like to discuss these opportunities further then please contact Chris Hilliard, Interim Head of Learning and Achievement on 020 3373 4251 .

To apply please submit an expression of interest of no more than two sides of A4 paper together with a brief curriculum vitae and an indication of the potential availability; these should be sent to Chris Hilliard: chris.hilliard@newham.gov.uk by Friday 6 March. Successful applicants will be invited to an informal interview in the week beginning Monday 9th March.

Newham is committed to working in partnership with schools to raise the bar and narrow the gap. This is an excellent opportunity for a strong leader, who is passionate about improving education and with our schools to deliver 'outstanding' education for the children and young people of our diverse borough.

The London Borough of Newham is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
